Dear Shacklewell Families,

Re: Cost Of Living Crisis

With the cost of living rising and many families across the country struggling with the cost of food and energy, Hackney Council have asked that we reach out to the school community with information on sources of support.

Using the table below you will be able to access support, including information about organisations that will be able to offer help and advice.

Please also be aware that we are always available to offer guidance and support if you are struggling at this time.

Best wishes,

Rory McGrath
