

Things you already know

- You know changes which have occurred in living memory like The Great Fire of London
- You know characteristics of different periods of history like the Victorians and the Romans
- You know about significant events in the past such as: The Great Fire of London (1666) and the Bubonic Plague (1665)

Key Vocabulary

Legacy	The lasting impact of a person's actions.
Significance	The importance of a person or event.
Slavery	When people own other people and make them work for them without paying them.

New History Knowledge

- You will know about significant people and events in history.
- You will know how Hackney has changed over time.
- You will know the cause of key events.
- You will know what activism is.

The Rev. Joseph Jackson Fuller (1825–1908)

History skills you already have

- You are able to sequence events.
- You are able to use sources to find out about the past.
- You are able to assess the impact of significant events.
- You are able to identify similarities and differences.

New History Skills

- You will be able to explain the significance of people from the past.
- You will be able to identify the cause and consequence of significant events.
- You will be able to consider how we remember the past.
- You will be able to compare the lives of significant people.

Enrichment Opportunities

A visit to Abney Park cemetery to look and find out about local history

