

History - Year 2 - Spring 2 - Marvellous Medics

Things you already know

- You know what the past, present and future is
- You know about the Great Fire of London in 1666
- You know about the Industrial Revolution in 1700s-1800s
- You know about slavery and abolitionists in the 1700s-1800s

Key Vocabulary

chronology

putting events in time order source

person, place or object that can teach us about history generation

the people born and alive in one period of time significant something that is important and might change other things consequence

feelings and events that happen after a significant event modern things that are happening in the present

New History Knowledge

- You will learn about medical care in the past
- You will find out about important events in history that changed medicine, including the Crimean War and the Windrush Generation
- You will learn about important people in history that changed medicine, including Mary Seacole, Florence Nightingale and Edith Cavell

Skills you already have

- You can use a timeline to put historical events in chronological order
- You can name famous people from the past, like Joseph Jackson Fuller
- You can identify primary and secondary sources

New History Skills

- You will know how to learn about history from artefacts
- You will know how to compare different people in history
- You will know how to put new events on a timeline of events you have already learned about

