

New History Knowledge

Things you already know

- You know about the age and the layout of Prehistoric Britain
- You know about the significance of several time periods, including the Ice Age, Stone Age, Bronze Age and the Iron Age
- You know the chronology of significant historical events up to modern day

Key Vocabulary

ancient	of great age or a time early in history
Egypt	a country in the continent of Africa civilization	development of people living together in large communities
hieroglyphics	early system of writing
Cleopatra	last active ruler of Egypt
pharaohs	king or queens of Egypt

- You will know what hieroglyphics are and how they were used
- You will know the impact of Egyptian hieroglyphics on civilization then and on life today
- You will know the ancient Egyptian gods and why they were worshipped
- You will know the significance of ancient Egyptian life on the world we live in today

Skills you already have

- You can make comparisons between our lives and the lives of historical figures in the past
- You are able to use different sources to find out about the past
- You can distinguish between different types of historical sources and evaluate their usefulness

New History Skills

- You will be able to analyse Ancient Egyptian achievements in architecture
- You will be able to compare the significance of two pharaohs
- You will be able to make comparisons of a ruler from the past to a ruler from today
- You will be able to investigate a range of ancient Egyptian artefacts