

New History Knowledge

Things you already know

Romans

- You know the reasons the Romans arrived and left Britain
- You know how the Romans changed life in Britain

The Vikings

- You know the reasons for Viking migration to England
- You know the Viking - Anglo-Saxon conflicts
- You know the peace agreements between Vikings and Anglo-Saxons

Skills you already have

- You can research facts about the past from a variety of different sources
- You can use historical terms and concepts
- You can consider the significance of events and developments in history

Key Vocabulary

democracy

ruled by the people through votes

Olympia

Ancient Greek sanctuary dedicated to Zeus colony

country or area under control of another country

Zeus

god of the sky

City-State

city that is its own independent state/country dictatorship

ruled by one person (a dictator) who has total power over a country philosophy

the study of understanding knowledge, reality and existence

- You will understand the chronology of the Ancient Greek period
- You will know about the different Ancient Greek Gods and Goddesses
- You will know the features of Ancient Greek democracy
- You will know the significance of Alexander the Great in Ancient Greece and the wider World

New History Skills

- You will be able to identify and locate key Ancient Greek sites
- You will be able to make inferences about Ancient Greek life through analysing artefacts
- You will be able to compare modern society with Ancient Greek society
- You will be able to make inferences about Alexander the Great through analysing sources